

CHAPTER XLVII.

*An Act making Appropriations for the support of the Government.SECTION 1. Appropriations for salaries of State officers, and other expenses of Government, for 1858 and 1859.

1. Salary of Governor,	$ 2,500
2. Compensation of Lieut. Governor for 1858 and 1859.	1,600
3. Salary of Secretary of State,	1,500
4. " " State Auditor,	1,500
5. " " State Treasurer,	1,000
6. " " Attorney General,	1,000
7. " " State Librarian,	600
8. " " Judges of Supreme Court,	6,000
9. " " Clerk of Supreme Court,	1,600
10. " " Judges of District Court,	12,000
11. " " Prosecuting Attorneys,	6,000
12. Executive Contingent Fund,	10,000
13. Salary of Assistant Secretary of State and contingent expenses of office,	1,600
14. Auditor's contingent fund, and salary of Ass't. Auditor,	2,500
15. Contingent fund and clerk hire of Treasurer,	1,000
16. Per diem and mileage of County Treasurers making tax payments,	2,500
17. Attorney General's contingent fund,	2,000
18. Supreme Court contingent fund,	500
19. Salaries of State Prison officers,	3,400
20. Payment of sums due late Territorial officers,	3,000
21. W. F. Wheeler for index to Constitution,	50
22. July interest on outstanding bonds,	10,000
23. Incidental printing fund, balance,	7,500
24. Printing fund, other than the preceding,	15,000
25. Publication of the Laws,	1,600
26. Newspapers furnished the Legislature,	2,500
27. Pay of Code Commissioners and stationery, and iron safes for 1st and 2nd Lumber Districts,	1,850
28. Incidental expenses of Legislature, not otherwise provided for, $5,000, stationery for members, $9,500,	14,500
29. Principal and interest on Territorial bonds,	4,200
30. For newspapers in 1856, $39, stationery in 1856, $50, and for safes, books, &c., for Bank Auditor's office, $1,500,	1,500

SECTION 2. Specifications as to manner of drawing warrants for appropriations set forth.

3. Act takes effect on passage.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

SECTION 1. That for salaries for State officers for the year eighteen hundred and fifty-nine, and for salaries for the year eighteen hundred and fifty-eight, not otherwise provided for, and for expenditures generally in support of the Government of this State up to the end of the next fiscal year, to wit: Up to the first day of January, A. D. 1860, and for the payment of expenses already incurred and not otherwise provided for, the following sums of money, or so much thereof as may be necessary, shall be, and the same are hereby appropriated, that is to say,

First. For the salary of the Governor, two thousand five hundred dollars.

Second. For compensation of the Lieutenant Governor, for 1858 and 1859, one thousand six hundred dollars.

Salaries of state
Officers

Third. For a salary of the Secretary of State, one thousand five hundred dollars.

Fourth. For the salary of the State Auditor, one thousand dollars.

Fifth. For the salary of the State Treasurer, one thousand dollars.

Sixth. For the salary of the Attorney General, one thousand dollars.

Seventh. For the salary of the State Librarian, six hundred dollars.

Eighth. For the salaries of the Judges of the Supreme Court, six thousand dollars.

Ninth. For the salary of the Clerk of the Supreme Court, one thousand dollars.

Tenth. For the salaries of the Judges of the District Court, twelve thousand dollars.

Eleventh. For the salaries of the Prosecuting Attorneys, six thousand dollars.

Twelfth. For an Executive Contingent Fund for State purposes, including clerk hire, care of and fuel for capitol buildings, hire of Engineers and Surveyors, and all other necessary expenditures and expenses of the Executive Department, not otherwise provided for by law, ten thousand dollars.

Thirteenth. For the salary of the Assistant Secretary of State and the contingent expenses of that office, sixteen hundred dollars.

Fourteenth. For contingent fund to the office of State Auditor, for salary of Assistant Auditor, clerk hire, and other incidental necessary expenses, two thousand five hundred dollars.

Contingent funds for state officers

Fifteenth. For clerk hire and all contingent expenses in the office of the State Treasurer, one thousand dollars.

Sixteenth. For per diem and mileage of County Treasurers in coming to and returning from the seat of government, to pay in full the State taxes of their respective counties, two thousand five hundred dollars.

Seventeenth. For contingent fund to the office of Attorney General to pay for fees, mileage and attendance upon Court, which may be ordered and authorized by law, two thousand dollars.

Eighteenth. For contingent fund to pay expenses appertaining to the Supreme Court, five hundred dollars.

Nineteenth. For the salary of the Warden of the Penitentiary, six hundred dollars; for the pay of Deputy Warden, Clerk and Inspectors of Prison, eight hundred dollars; for repairs of Penitentiary, two thousand dollars.

Salaries of state
prison officers

Twentieth. For the payment of any sums due late Territorial or State officers for salaries or contingent or necessary expenditures or expenses of such office or officer chargeable to the State, three thousand dollars; Provided, That no officer who was entitled to receive a compensation for his services from the United States, nor any officers of the United States shall receive any benefit under this Act. To late territorial officers

Twenty-first. For the services of W. F. Wheeler in preparing and furnishing to the State an analytical index to the Constitution, fifty dollars. For index

Twenty-second. For the payment of interest falling due in July, 1859, on outstanding State Bonds, ten thousand five hundred dollars. For interest on bonds

Twenty-third. For the incidental printing and binding ordered by the present Legislature, seven thousand five hundred dollars.

Twenty-fourth. For the printing and binding authorized, required or ordered by the present Legislature, other than the incidental printing provided for in the preceding specification, and for such printing, binding and advertising as are authorized to be done under the contract law, approved March 10, 1855, or otherwise authorized or to be authorized by law, and done prior to January first, 1860, fifteen thousand dollars. Printing and binding

Twenty-fifth. For the publication of the laws of the present postponed meeting of the Legislature, to wit: From the second day of June 1858, one thousand six hundred dollars.

Twenty-sixth. For newspapers furnished by order of this Legislature, two thousand five hundred dollars.

Twenty-seventh. For the pay of the three Commissioners appointed by this Legislature, to frame a Code of practice for the State, to each, four hundred dollars—one thousand two hundred dollars; and for stationery furnished the said Commissioners, to be certified correct by a majority of the Commissioners, one hundred and fifty dollars. There is further appropriated the sum of five hundred dollars to purchase iron safes for the first and second lumber districts. Code commission ers

Twenty-eighth. For all other incidental expenses incurred by this Legislature not otherwise provided for by law, five thousand dollars. The sum of six thousand dollars for payment of members in full for stationery, as per resolution of the House of Representatives, August ninth, 1858. For the payment of members and officers of the Senate in full for postage stamps, as per resolution of the Senate, adopted August eleventh, 1858, three thousand five hundred dollars. Legislative expenses

Twenty-ninth. For the payment of principal and interest of Territorial Bonds, falling due May, 1859, four thousand two hundred dollars. Principal and interest of territorial bonds

Thirtieth. To Merrit & Hutchins for newspapers furnished members of the Legislature for the winter of 1856, per order of the Legislature, fifty-nine dollars. To Charles H. Old accounts /

Hamilton for stationery supplied the Territorial Legislature in 1856, fifty dollars. For safe, books and clerk hire for Bank Auditor's office, fifteen hundred dollars.

Warrants—how to be issued

SEC. 2. No moneys appropriated in the preceding section shall be paid except on presentation of the warrant of the Auditor; and the Auditor shall issue no warrant for the payment of any bill, claim or demand upon the following specified funds or classes of this appropriation, until such bills, claims or demands shall be approved and certified as being correct by the department or authorities herein named, that is to say,

In specifications 2, 12, 20 and 17, by the Governor.

In specification 13, by the Secretary of State.

In specifications 15 and 16, by the State Treasurer.

In specification 18, by one of the Judges of the Supreme Court.

In specifications 23, 26 and 28, by the presiding officer and chief clerk of such branch of the Legislature to which the claim or demand relates. All other classes or specified appropriations in this Act, or any appropriation or act, unless otherwise specially provided for, shall be paid upon the warrant of the Auditor only, and it shall be the duty of the Auditor to examine and audit all bills, claims or orders whatsoever, whether the amount be certified by any other officer or department or not, before he shall issue any warrant on the Treasurer for the payment of such bill, claim or demand.

SEC. 3. This Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

GEORGE BRADLEY,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

WILLIAM HOLCOMBE,

President of the Senate.

APPROVED—August twelfth, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight.

HENRY H. SIBLEY.

I have signed the above bill, protesting against the items of $6,000 and $3,500, contained in specification number twenty-eight.

HENRY H. SIBLEY.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE, Minnesota, }
August 12, 1858. }

I hereby certify the foregoing to be a true copy of the original on file in this office.

FRANCIS BAASEN Secretary.